

How to Authenticate This Official Transcript

This official transcript has been delivered to the recipient, and is intended solely for use by that recipient. It is not permissible to replicate this document or forward it to any person or organization other than the identified recipient. Release of this record or disclosure of its contents to any third party without written consent of the record owner is prohibited.

Printed Transcript:

If you have received this transcript as a printed document, you may verify its authenticity by testing the security features noted on the document.

Electronic Transcript:

This document is official when downloaded by a Parchment Receive member from their inbox.

If receiving via email, this official transcript has been digitally signed and therefore contains special characteristics. This document will reveal a digital certificate that has been applied to the transcript, and for optimal results, we recommend that this document is viewed with the latest version of Adobe® Acrobat or Adobe® Reader. This digital certificate will appear in a pop-up screen or status bar on the document, display a blue ribbon, and declare that the document was certified by Parchment, with a valid certificate issued by GlobalSign CA for Adobe®. This document certification can be validated by clicking on the Signature Properties of the document.

The Blue Ribbon Symbol: The blue ribbon is your assurance that the digital certificate is valid, the document is authentic, and the contents of the transcript have not been altered.

Invalid: If the transcript does not display a valid certification and signature message, reject this transcript immediately. An invalid digital certificate display means either the digital signature is not authentic, or the document has been altered. The digital signature can also be revoked by the transcript office if there is cause, and digital signatures can expire. A document with an invalid digital signature display should be rejected.

Author Unknown: Lastly, one other possible message, Author Unknown, can have two possible meanings: The certificate is a self-signed certificate or has been issued by an unknown or untrusted certificate authority and therefore has not been trusted, or the revocation check could not complete. If you receive this message make sure you are properly connected to the internet. If you have a connection and you still cannot validate the digital certificate on-line, reject this document.

The current version of Adobe® Reader is free of charge, and available for immediate download at <http://www.adobe.com>.

NOTE: Prior to the fall of 1987, all transcripts were kept manually and updated at the end of each enrollment period. Beginning with the fall of 1987, transcripts are computer generated and list all courses attempted since September 1, 1987

* Upon completion of the remaining work, the grade of "I" is changed to a permanent grade. If the work is not completed prior to the end of the 60 - day time period, the "I" is changed to an "F."

SEMESTER HOURS

Course credit is based on the semester hour unit. Generally, a lecture course meets three hours each week during a sixteen (16) week semester, and a student receives three semester hours of credit for successfully completing such a course. To ensure that classes meet the required hours, weekly course time will increase for classes meeting in semesters of less than sixteen (16) weeks.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

An alphabetic prefix is used to designate the subject area of the course. Following the prefix is a numeric code. In a four-character code, the first digit denotes the academic level or year in which the courses are usually taken. The number "1" indicates freshman courses and the number "2" indicates sophomore courses. When the first number is "0", the course is developmental level. The second digit represents the semester credit hour value of the course. The third and fourth digits are for subject sequencing.

TRANSFER CREDITS

Normally all college-level course work satisfactorily completed at a regionally accredited institution will be accepted in transfer. A course-by-course evaluation of transfer work for students seeking a degree or certificate will appear on the transcript.
